FOR CONCERTS

June 18: The Hermit Hollow String Band

Old-time & traditional bluegrass. Pickin' & grinnin' with harmonies, fiddle, guitar, mandolin, and banjo.

June 25: Silas Hamilton and Friends

With musical inspirations from classical to old-time fiddle, Silas makes it all his own. Solo album "All the Ways" debuted in 2023.

July 2: Luminous Crush

Original music with deep roots in alternative rock and indie pop as well as traditional bluegrass, alt-country and what-not. "...They dazzle..." — 7 Days

July 9: Ryan Fuller

As a solo singer/guitarist, Ryan is a joy to listen to. He plays a bit of everything, with his main genre being 90's alternative.

July 16: Yankee Chank

Vermont's own Cajun band! Cajun and Creole dance music from Southwest Louisiana with lively vocals and various instruments like accordian and fiddle.

July 23: Michele Fay Band

The Michele Fay Band features original and Americana music that brings forth a comfortable groove of folk, swing, and bluegrass-influenced songs.

July 30: Snake Mountain Bluegrass

This popular group is known for its vocal, instrumental, and original songwriting talents, plus a great sense of humor with a bit of on-stage banter.

August 6: Side Effects

This accomplished acoustic duo offers an eclectic repertoire of 60's & 70's coffeehouse folk, along with some original and traditional tunes with vocals supported by fiddle and guitar.

August 13: Mr. Moose and Friends

Closing the season is Zachary Hampton, a passionate saxophonist and educator, deeply committed to the idea of sharing his wild energy through music.

If there is a slight rain, concert will be held in the pavilion. In case of severe weather, concert is cancelled.
